Canevale di Ivrea was a time in Ivrea when there was a fight of throwing oranges. The year 6’s had to think of some ball games for the kids. The things we thought of were bocce’ (an Italian ball game), dodge ball, throw a ball in a bucket and hockey using a ball instead of a puck. The most popular activity was dodge ball, some kids didn’t get to play dodge ball but still had fun.